Gwinnett Federal Credit Union Relocates Branch to Former Bank Location

Lawrenceville, GA – Recently, Gwinnett Federal Credit Union decided to lease an empty bank location. Relocating the Winder, Georgia office will enhance member service by providing a more convenient downtown location. This full service branch has additional space for private consultations and an onsite MEMBERS AutoChoice™ representative.

"Since opening our doors, the new Winder location has enjoyed significant growth" said Marshall Boutwell, President and CEO of Gwinnett Federal. "Our former location served us well, but we had outgrown it and the enthusiastic support of the local public school employees and other employee groups confirms that this was a good move. Based on the growth potential of this location, we anticipate acquiring the property in the near future."

To celebrate the relocation, an Open House is planned for December when members and invited guests will be able to enjoy the holiday season and refreshments in the newly expanded facility.
