Atlanta Postal Credit Union Cares For Kids

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE . . . November 27, 2009, Atlanta, Georgia

Atlanta Postal Credit Union and nearby Atlanta businesses joined together with Star 94, a local Atlanta radio station, for Star 94’s seventh annual Star 94 Cares for Kids Radiothon. All proceeds from the fundraiser benefit Children’s Miracle Network (CMN) and Children’s Healthcare of Atlanta, a not-for-profit pediatric healthcare organization. In the past seven years, The Star 94 Cares for Kids Radiothon has raised more than $7.3 million for CMN and Children’s Healthcare of Atlanta.

“Atlanta Postal Credit Union is proud to have been part of this amazing program over the years. All the proceeds raised stay right here in our community and help our kids through supporting our local children’s hospitals”, said Dianne Yost, APCU’s Senior VP of Marketing.

APCU’s Human Resource Assistant, Melinda Corley, and APCU’s Member Communication Specialist, Lauren Stock, participated in Star 94’s Cares for Kids Radiothon to help raise funds for Children’s Miracle Network and Children’s Healthcare of Atlanta.

About Atlanta Postal Credit Union

A full-service financial institution, Atlanta Postal Credit Union was chartered by the state of Georgia in 1925 to serve the employees of the United States Postal Service. The credit union is the oldest credit union in Georgia and the largest postal credit union in the nation with assets in excess of $2.0 billion. It is a leader in providing both lending and deposit products to its 99,000 members via its six branches, one in Macon and five in Atlanta; and via its Internet Web site at www.apcu.com. The main office is located at 3900 Crown Road, Atlanta, GA 30380-0001.
