Gwinnett Federal Credit Union Fulfills Local Children's Christmas Wishes

Lawrenceville, GA – Gwinnett Federal Credit Union Board of Directors', employees and members joined forces with The Salvation Army Angel Tree Program in Gwinnett County. The Angel Tree Program provides children and seniors facing hardships with Christmas gifts. Due to the demands of a tough economy and an overwhelming number of "Angel" requests, this year the Salvation Army was in desperate need of local businesses to assist in filling these wishes.

Gwinnett Federal Credit Unions employees voluntarily collected donations, shopped and filled 100 "Angel" requests. The "Angels" were needy children ranging in age from infants to teens with requests from socks to bikes. Gwinnett Federal promoted the program with "Angel" requests on their Christmas trees at all locations.
