Robins Federal Credit Union Opens Two New Branches

Warner Robins, Ga. – Robins Federal Credit Union recently opened two new branches in central Georgia.

The new branches are located in Milledgeville and Forsyth, Ga.

Although Robins Federal has had a branch in Milledgeville, Ga. for some time, the credit union decided to build a new, larger branch for the area. The new branch is conveniently located in one of the busier shopping districts of Milledgeville and boasts a drive-through, a 24-hour ATM and night deposit,

The new Robins Federal Credit Union branch in Milledgeville, Ga. is larger, centrally located, and provides more services than the former branch.

“With this new location, we will be better able to serve the residents of Baldwin County and the surrounding areas. We are glad to continue to be a part of the Milledgeville community, and look forward to building new relationships,” John Rhea, President and CEO of Robins Federal Credit Union, said.

Branch Manager Leigh Ann Lusk (center with scissors), along with Robins Federal Credit Union President John Rhea (on Lusk’s left), members of the Board of Directors and credit union staff cut the ribbon for the new Forsyth, Ga. branch.

Robins Federal had the opportunity to expand its services to Monroe County this spring when Piedmont Bank sold their location in downtown Forsyth, Ga. The Forsyth branch is Robins Federal’s 18th location in central Georgia, and provides additional convenience for members to conduct their financial business in Monroe County.

“A lot of our members live in this area, and we wanted to serve them more conveniently. With this new location, we hope to offer our financial services to those who may not have heard of us before. We invite everyone to come in and try our great products and exceptional member service,” Rhea said.

Over 900 new accounts have been opened at the two locations since the grand openings.

A Note to the Editor: Robins Federal Credit Union is a not-for-profit cooperative financial service provider with eighteen branches throughout Georgia. Robins Federal currently provides financial services to over 132,000 members and assets exceeding $1.3 billion.
