

For immediate release
Press Release
05/25/2010

Coosa Valley Credit Unions Savings Crew host Savings Crew Saturday....

On May 22nd 2010, Coosa Valley Credit Union hosted the first ever Savings Crew Saturday at the new Eco Center at Ridge Ferry Park in Rome Georgia. The Savings Crew is Coosa Valley's children's savings program led by their Mascot Captain Jack Dollar a lovable pirate who encourages

Winners with Captain Dollar at the entrance to the wetland exhibit kids to save their treasure and watch it grow. During youth week 2010, Savings Crew members entered their names at their closest branch to be invited to Savings Crew Saturday with the Captain and his crew. 20 winners and their families were treated to a Saturday afternoon at the new Eco Center at Ridge Ferry park of fun, pirate cup cakes and snacks, an eco treasure hunt where the learned about the local rivers, wildlife and ecology plus loads of treasure to take home.

Robert E. Smyth
Marketing Manager.