Duluth, GA – Georgia Federal Credit Union (GFCU) is proud to announce the winners for their 2010 John F. Donoghue Catholic Scholarships, created in honor of the Archbishop who petitioned to add credit union benefits to members of the Archdiocese of Atlanta.

This is the third year GFCU has awarded scholarships to Catholic School students. Selection was based on academic accomplishments, leadership and participation in both school and community activities and an essay competition. This competition is in addition to GFCU's 16th annual Vernon E. Carne Scholarships that were awarded earlier this month.

This year's top winner was Katherine Myers, of St. Pius X High School, who received $1,500. Second Place of $1,000 was awarded to Jennifer Underhill of Blessed Trinity High School.
