Athens, GA – Georgia Federal Credit Union (GFCU) is proud to announce donations to both Cedar Shoals High School and Clarke Central High School through their High School Spirit Promotion. Cedar Shoals received a check for $810.00 for the spring semester and Clarke Central received a check for $490.00. These checks were in addition to donation checks both schools received during the fall semester.

Georgia Federal Credit Union donates $10 to designated local high schools across the state for every new account opened during the academic year. Cedar Shoals was the top earning school (at $950) to receive funds from among all the high schools that received donations by GFCU this academic year.

About Georgia Federal Credit Union

Georgia Federal Credit Union is ranked as one of the top credit unions in Georgia with over $625 million in assets and thirteen branch locations, including two in Athens. Georgia Federal Credit Union serves the entire Clarke County community including the Clarke County School District, University of Georgia faculty, staff, students and alumni. They are federally insured by the National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund (NCUSIF).
